NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR

Thank you all for joining us to watch Warren Players' production of Guys and Dolls. Recently, Warren Players has been doing more contemporary shows and I felt it was time for an old favorite. It has been a lot of fun doing this show and I love the musical numbers. I'm very happy with the work the cast and crew have put into this show. We hope you enjoy it!

SYNOPSIS

Considered by many to be the perfect musical comedy, Guys and Dolls ran for 1,200 performances when it opened on Broadway in 1950. It received nearly unanimous positive reviews from critics and won a bevy of awards, including Tony Awards, Drama Desks and Oliviers. Frequently revived, the show has been performed with numerous all-star casts, including productions/concerts featuring Ewan McGregor, Jane Krakowski, Brian Stokes Mitchell and Jessica Biel.

Set in Damon Runyon's mythical New York City, Guys and Dolls is an oddball romantic comedy. Gambler, Nathan Detroit, tries to find the cash to set up the biggest craps game in town while the authorities breathe down his neck. Meanwhile, his girlfriend and nightclub performer, Adelaide, laments that they've been engaged for 14 years. Nathan turns to fellow gambler, Sky Masterson, for the dough, and Sky ends up chasing the straight-laced missionary, Sarah Brown, as a result. Guys and Dolls takes us from the heart of Times Square to the cafes of Havana, Cuba, and even into the sewers of New York City, but eventually everyone ends up right where they belong.

Most people focus on the on-stage talent, but since I have spent years on both sides of the spot lights, I realize how much work goes on behind the curtains. I have marveled at the amount of hidden talent that Warren Players has beneath the surface because not enough people get asked. Don't wait - step up and volunteer - you'll love the results.

Shout Out: To all the hard workers who aren't on stage, the ones who work the spot lights or make the mics work, or get the costumes together, the ones who put together the props, the sets, all the little and big bits and pieces that make a show work. And to the audience who comes and appreciates everyone's hard work to make it all worth while.
